PARKSIDE

Parkside is a beautifully designed new build development perfectly placed between Canary Wharf to the south, Westfield Stratford City to the north and The City of London to the west. It offers an exclusive collection of 52 private apartments and duplexes over 3 blocks.

Although it's set on a manicured park, most apartments enjoy very generous outside space – a rarity in central London these days. The development also boasts beautifully landscaped courtyards and gardens for residents' use.

For ease, all the apartments are accessible by lift. While for complete peace of mind, there's a video entry system. Inside the apartments materials of the highest quality are used. With fully integrated designer kitchens, engineered wide board oak flooring and fully tiled luxurious bathrooms, these apartments will appeal to a discerning array of professionals and investors.

In short, with its combination of a prime location, luxury finishes and excellent transport links, Parkside perfectly embodies the best of metropolitan living.

A STUNNING PARKSIDE LOCATION MOMENTS FROM CANARY WHARF

FURZE GREEN & LIMEHOUSE CANAL

With its setting overlooking a beautiful park just moments from one of London's historic waterways, Parkside offers a perfect escape from the hustle of London. Just minutes from Canary Wharf and The City, residents can stretch their legs and their lungs with a multitude of open spaces to choose from. These include the Limehouse Canal, Furze Green, Mile End Park, Bartlett Park, Victoria Park (one of London's oldest and largest). Finally the vast expanse of the largest park to be built in Europe over the past 100 years can be found minutes away at the former Olympic Park.

With 1.8 million sqft of retail, restaurants and bars, Westfield Stratford City is just 5 minutes to the north. The commercial powerhouse of Canary Wharf is just 7 minutes to the South putting you at the heart of East London's renaissance. It is easy to understand why the smart money is heading East.

TRANSPORT

ALL LONDON AWAITS

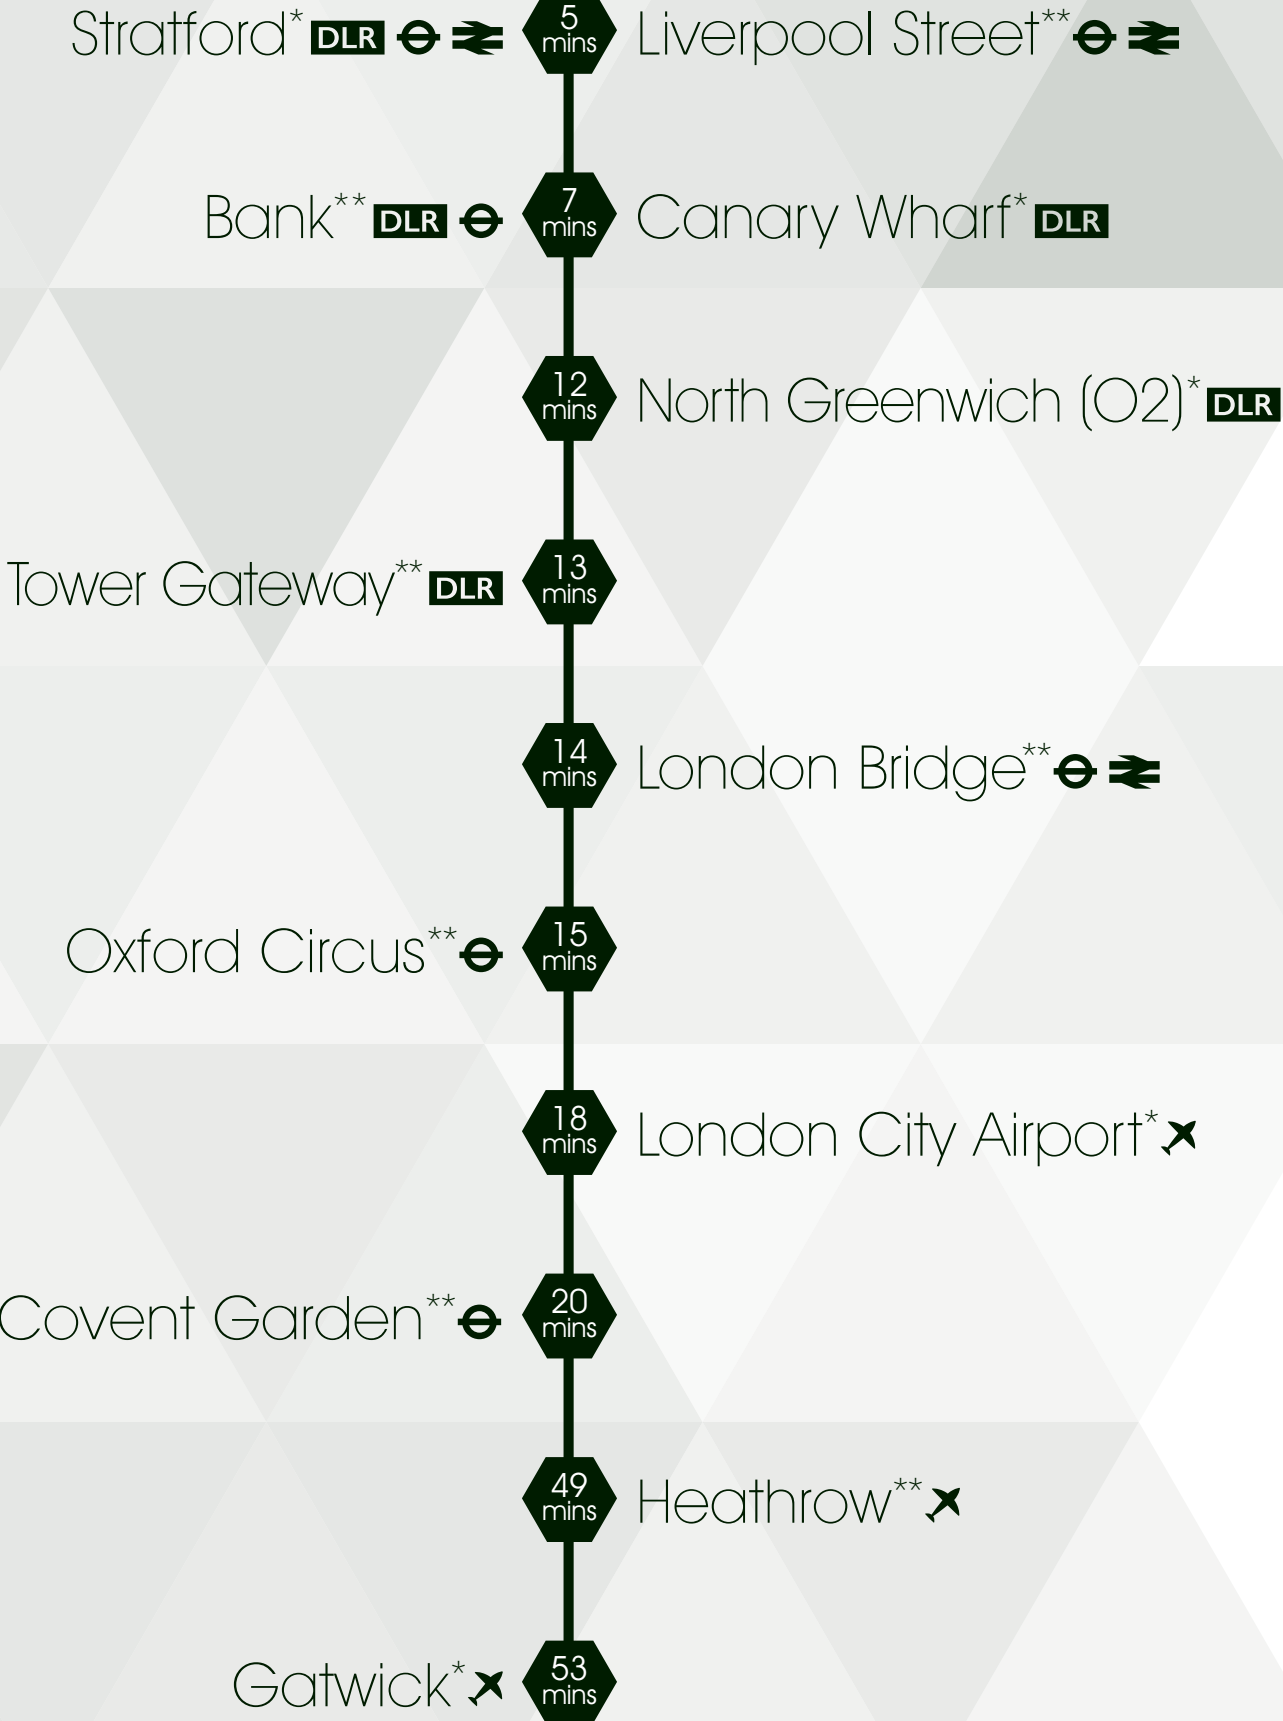

The superb DLR connections Parkside enjoys make the eclectic shops, bars and restaurants of Westfield Stratford City and Canary Wharf your new locals. Then for work, it's not just Canary Wharf that's at close quarter, The City couldn't be easier to reach either.

THE ARRIVAL OF CROSSRAIL

Set to revolutionise transport in London, Canary Wharf's Crossrail station will open in 2018 and put many of London's biggest attractions that bit nearer.

HIGH FINANCE

Canary Wharf is without question one of the world's leading business and finance centres, and conveniently it's only 7 minutes away*. Home to a host of FTSE 100 companies and a workforce of 90,000 people, it's Europe's fastest growing business district. And to service the whims of its ever-growing population of professionals are over 300 shops, bars and restaurants, not to mention an extensive programme of music, film, theatre, dance, art and fashion events.

HIGH FASHION

Boasting some of the world's best sporting facilities and a newly created 560 acre park, the legacy of London 2012 has seen Stratford reborn. To many however, the jewel in its crown is Westfield Stratford City. A veritable retail heaven with a plethora of shops – from high street favourites such as Zara and Reiss to high fashion boutiques like Prada and Mulberry. And to fuel all this retail therapy, there are also a wealth of restaurants and bars. Not to mention a cinema complex and casino.

YOUR NEW LOCALS

The Narrow - Panoramic views of the Thames.
A traditional pub feel. Gordon Ramsay's culinary genius. You couldn't ask for more.

The Grapes - Owned by Sir Ian McKellen, this small but perfectly formed traditional drinking house is a local institution.

Roka - Award winning Japanese restaurant built around its Robata grill. Get one of the 14 grill seats and witness the chefs in action.

Boisdale - 900 whiskies behind the bar. The finest Scottish cuisine.
Jazz and blues six days a week. Caledonian perfection.

The Gun - A stone's throw from Billingsgate fish market,
this acclaimed gastro-pub is unsurprisingly renowned for its seafood.

ESCAPE THE HUSTLE

Being surrounded by thriving centres of commerce and retail has plenty of benefits, but there'll no doubt be times when you want to unwind, away from the bustle. Fortunately, you don't have to go far to escape. The Limehouse Canal is just moments away and leads down to the Limehouse Basin. Both testaments to London's shipping heritage, today they're perfect for a relaxed stroll watching the world float by.

For a greener outlook, you're also spoilt for choice. To the north of Parkside you'll find Victoria Park. As well as being one of London's oldest parks, with its delightful lake and stunning gardens it's one of the prettiest. Slightly nearer is Mile End Park which boasts terraced gardens, a climbing wall and an ecological park. Then there is the greenery of the Queen Elizabeth Olympic Park - which is in fact one of the largest urban parks created in Europe for more than 150 years.

↑ Queen Elizabeth Olympic Park
It is a 12 minute walk to the Park. Bus 168 runs from Woodfield Avenue and stops outside the Park entrance. Buses run every 15 minutes.

KNOWLEDGE IS POWER

London's universities are renowned the world over for the quality of their teaching and the standing of the qualifications they offer. Queen Mary University of London is the nearest and dates back to the founding of the London Hospital Medical College in 1785. At the heart of central London, but still readily accessible are King's College, LSE and UCL. The London Business School, home to one of the world's leading MBA courses is also easy to reach. As is Imperial College in South Kensington.
